The Promise to David’s Family

Even though the descendants of Jehoshaphat fell into gross idolatry, God did not take the promise of an everlasting kingdom away from the family of David. But for a time when Jezebel’s daughter Athaliah ruled in Jerusalem, it seemed as though the dynasty of David had been wiped out. But one descendant of David was still alive: the boy Joash. Joash was protected by the high priest Jehoiada and his wife, who herself was a descendant of David. At the appropriate time Joash was revealed as a living royal descendant of David, and the wicked queen Athaliah was deposed and killed. Once again, the rule was in the hands of David’s family – the family from which would come JESUS, the Son of David.

The Assyrian Empire

There were two empires that competed for power in the early years of the divided kingdom. One was Egypt, which had had many years of great glory even before the days of Joseph. But gradually the Assyrian Empire, centered in Nineveh, gained great strength, and it began its conquest of all the smaller kingdoms next to it. Among the kingdoms threatened by Assyria were the kingdoms of Syria, Israel, and Judah. Syria and Israel were finally defeated. In 722 BC Assyria took what was left of Israel and carried off the Israelites into captivity. Most of these Israelite never returned to their native land, nor did their descendants. God allowed Israel to be defeated because of their continued idolatry over many years. On the other hand, God protected Judah and Jerusalem from the Assyrians, so that the dynasty of David could continue in power for many more years.

Jehu of Israel (841-814 BC)

1. Elisha commands a son of the prophets to anoint Jehu as king of Israel and to order him to wipe out the dynasty of Omri (2 Kings 9:1-10).
5. Jezebel suffers a horrible death, as prophesied by Elijah (2 Kings 9:30-37).
8. Jehu kills all the members of Omri’s dynasty in Samaria (2 Kings 10:15-17).
9. By trickery Jehu kills all the prophets and priests of Baal and ends Baal worship in Israel (2 Kings 10:18-28).
11. The Syrians keep taking land away from Israel until Jehu’s death (2 Kings 10:32-36).

Athaliah (queen) of Judah (841-835 BC), the daughter of Ahab of Israel

12. Athaliah kills all the royal family except the infant boy Joash, who is hidden in the Temple by his aunt, the priest’s wife (2 Kings 11:1-3; 2 Chronicles 22:10-12).
13. The priest Jehoiada and others rebel against Athaliah and crown the seven-year-old Joash as king (2 Kings 11:4-12; 2 Chronicles 23:1-11).

Joash of Judah (835-796 BC) – also called Jehoash

15. The people renew their covenant with the LORD, abolishing Baal worship (2 Kings 11:17-21; 2 Chronicles 23:16-21).
17. Joash repairs the Temple with money from a chest (2 Kings 12:4-16; 2 Chronicles 24:4-14).

“The priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar” (__________)

18. Jehoiada dies at age 130; Joash and his princes introduce idolatry again (2 Chronicles 24:15-18).
19. Jehoiada’s son Zechariah testifies against this and he is stoned to death (2 Chronicles 24:19-22).

Jehoahaz of Israel (814-798 BC)

23. Hazael and Benhadad II of Syria oppress Israel greatly (2 Kings 13:3-7).
Jehoash of Israel (798-782 BC)

27. Elisha prophesies three victories of Jehoash over Syria (2 Kings 13:14-19).
   “You should have struck five or six times... now you will strike Syria only three times” (v. ___)

Amaziah of Judah (796-767 BC)

32. Amaziah gathers an army, and hires men from Israel, but “a man of God” tells him to send them back home, even though he has already paid them (2 Chronicles 25:5-10, 13).
   Amaziah: “What shall we do about the hundred talents which I have given?” (v. ___)
   The man of God: “The LORD is able to give you much more than this” (v. ___)
33. Amaziah wins a victory over the Edomites (2 Kings 14:7; 2 Chronicles 25:11-12).
34. “A prophet” rebukes Amaziah for worshiping the idols of Edom (2 Chronicles 25:14-16).
   “God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this” (v. ___)

Jeroboam II of Israel (793-753 BC)

38. Jeroboam II restores the ancient boundaries of Solomon’s kingdom (2 Kings 14:25-29).
   It was the prophet Jonah who prophesied Jeroboam’s victories. See the next lesson, Lesson 31.
   The reign of Jeroboam II was one of outward prosperity with inward corruption.

Azariah or Uzziah of Judah (790-739 BC)

   “He made devices in Jerusalem...to shoot arrows and large stones” (v. ___)
41. In pride Uzziah offers incense in the Temple and is stricken with leprosy until his death (2 Kings 15:5-7; 2 Chronicles 26:16-23).
   Only the priests were permitted to enter the Holy Place of the Temple.

Zechariah of Israel (753-752 BC) – the last king of the dynasty of Jehu

Note: The numbers besides the kings of Israel refer to their various dynasties. The underlined kings of...
Judah (Joash/Jehoash, Amaziah, Azariah/Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah) are those who are described in the Bible as God-fearing kings. They were far from perfect in their loyalty to God, but it seems that they trusted in God’s promises concerning the coming Christ (Jesus) and tried to walk in the ways of the Lord. The Bold prophets are those who wrote their prophesies in a book found in the Bible.
